RULES OF THE PLUMAS EXHIBITION. I. All members of the Plumas County Agricultural and Mechanical Society will be furnished cultural and Mechanical Society will be furnished with a badge of Membership, upon payment of the membership of $2 50, and will be required to wear the same during the Fair, and the same shall not be transferable. The Badge will admit the ladies of his family, and children under fifteen years of age, as members of the Society.

II. All exhibitors who intend to compete for the premiums of the Society, must become members of the same or pay an Entrance Fee amounting to the same. Exhibitors must have their articles, animals, &c., entered at the office of the Recording Secretary, as follows: For the Pavillion Department, not later than 10 o'clock, A. M., Tuesday, October 4th, and for the Cattle Grounds, not later than three P. M., Wednesday, October 4th, without fail, so that they may be arranged in their respective departments, and be in readiness for examination by the Judges on Phursday, October 5th, at ten o'clock, A. M. III. The Society will not be responsible for the omission to exhibit any article or animal, not entered strictly in accordance with its rules. IV. No article or animal entered for a premium, can be removed or taken away (without special permission,) before the close of the Exhibition. No premiums will be paid on articles or animals removed in violation of this rule.

V. All articles or animals entered for exhibi tion, must have cards attached, with the number as entered at the Secretary's desk; and exhibitors in all cases, must obtain their cards previous to placing their animals on exhibition.

VI. The Executive Committee will use every precaution in their power for the safe preserva-tion of all articles and stock on exhibition, but will not be responsible for accidents. Exhibitors must give their attention to articles or animal during the Fair, and at the close of the Exhibi-tion attend to their removal.

VII. Except where ladies are invited to act as Judges, the Awarding Committees will in every instance be composed of members of the Society, and will be selected solely with reference to the highest order of fitness, and in no case will a person be permitted to act as judge in any de-partment in which he is a competitor. VIII. The Judges on animals will have regard to their symmetry, early maturity, thorough breeding, and characteristics of the breeds which they judge. They will make proper allowances for the age, feeding and condition of the animals especially in the breeding classes, and will not give encouragement to over-fed animals IX. No person will be allowed in any wise to nterfere with the judges in their adjudications. X. The several Superintending Committees will give particular attention to all articles in their departments, and see that they are arranged in the best order possible, to lessen and facilitate the labors of the judges in their examinations. XI. The Chief Marshal, with efficient Aids, will be in attendance during the hours of exhibition to keep proper order. XII. The Chief Marshal, will call the Judges at ten o'clock on Tuesday morning, the 3d, to assemble them at the Secretary's room; furnish them with blank books in which to register their awards, and have the judges conducted by the Assistant Marshals to their respective departments of the Exhibition.

XIII. The Judges will withhold premiums or animals or articles, in their opinion not worthy. XIV. The Marshal and his Aids will give daily and constant care to the several depart-ments, and see that the above rules are strictly

XV. A suitable person will be chosen in each department to superintend the carrying out of the arrangements of the Executive Committee. XVI. The Judges are required to complete their awards and hand in their reports to the Recording Secretary by Wednesday evening the 4th, that the same may be properly announced before the close of the Exhibition.

Any information with regard to the Society will be promptly furnished by addressing the Secretary, to whom all communications should

The Fair will close with a Grand Ball on Thursday evening, the 5th of October, 1865. J. N. BLOOB, President. Executive Com. R. S. FLOURNOY, Treas. N. C. CUNNINGHAM, Sec'y. Taylorville, Sept. 1, 1865.

THE TAX BILL.—Somebody proposes the following new amendments to the Tax Bill: For kissing a pretty girl $1. For kissing a very homely one $2-the extra amount being added, probably, for the man's folly.

For ladies kissing one another, $2. The tax is placed at this rate in order to break up the custom altogether, it being regarded by our M. C.'s as a piece of inexcusable absurdity.

For every flirtation, 10 cents For every young man who has more than one "girl," he is taxed $5. For courting in the kitchen, 25 cents, Courting in the sitting room, 50 cents. Courting in the parlor $1.

Courting in a romantic place, $5; and 40 cents for each offense thereafter. Seeing a lady home from Church, 25 cents for each offense. Seeing her home from Dime Society, 4 cents, the proceeds to be devoted to the relief of disabled army Chaplains. For a lady who paints, 50 cents, For wearing low-neck dresses, $1. For each curl on a lady's head above ten 4 cents.

For any unfair device for entraping young men into matrimony, $5.

For wearing hoops larger than eight feet in circumferance, 8 cents for each hoop.
Old bachelors over thirty, are taxed $10; over forty, $20; over fifty, $50; and sen tenced to banishment in Utah.

Every pretty lady to be taxed from 25 cents to $25, she to fix the estimate of her own beauty. It is thought that a large amount will be realized from this provision. Each boy baby, 50 cents. Each girl baby, 10 cents. Families having more than eight babies are not to be taxed; and for twins, a premium of $40 will be paid out of the fund accruing from the tax on old bachelors.

Each Sunday loafer on the street corners full value, which is about 2 cents.

WHAT A NEGRO THOUGHT OF SHERMAN. A letter from Raleigh says: As General Sherman was riding through the streets of Raleigh on one occasion, he was pointed out to a party of blacks gathered on the corner. "Lord, massa, is dat General Sherman?" said one of the old men. "Why, bless your soul, dev told us he had long whiskers, way down to his knees. Dev told us he had big eyes and ears, and had horns. Why, Lord bless my heart, det General Sherman? Why bless my heart-dat General Sherman ? Why all de white folks run. Lord it made old Johnston run to hear of dat man. RETROSPECT

BY OSWALD ROSE JOHNSON. stood on the beach at twilight gray, Where Outario's calm, blue waters sleep,
And the lingering light of an Autumn day,
Threw its parting kiss on the silent deep.
And the crescent moon, with her radiant glow,
Met a sister's glance in the lake below.

For awhile I gazed on the waters wide, For awhile I gazed on the waters wide,
Then I turned and gazed on the forest near,
And I wondered much if in manly pride
The red man of old ever wandered here;
Or the red man's child long, long ago,
Ever sported here with his tiny bow.

"O, spirit of Eld!"—at length I cried,—
"Reveal the past with its mystic love!
Let the ghosta that hover above the tide, Or range unseen on the woody shore, Stand revealed again, as in days gone by, With the jetty locks, and flashing eye!"

I spoke; and a scene on my vision grew,
As strange as a childhood's fairy tale;
For the smoke of the wigwam carling blue,
Floated up like mist from the silent vale;
And the stalwart forms of the by-gone time,
Stood erect as of yore, in their nation's prime.

And the matron old, and the dusky maid, And the matron old, and the dusky maid,
And the aged chief, and the wayward child,
At their ease reclined, or at pleasure strayed
Through the winding paths of the forest wild,
And the young pappoose in his childish glee,
Watched his arrow's flight o'er the lefty tree.

Then the scene was changed, and the council Blazed high in air with a rouge of flame, While soft as the notes of a lover's lyre, The sighing winds through the wild-woods And the Autumn leaves from the branches high, Courtesied low to the earth, in their mute reply. And the burning words of the Sachems rtirred.

The fires of wrath in the warrior's breast,
And answering shouts of applause were heard

From the eager braves, in their deep unrest.

While their tomahawks gleamed with a venges ful glow,
And were brandished in air at a phantom foe.

But hark! they start, and in dread dismay, Each brave for a moment stood aghast;
For a whooping host in wild array,
Came sweeping down like an Autumn blast.
And their eagle plumes waved free in air,
As their wild steeds rushed to the carnage there. And on they dashed, in their fury bold,
Like the eagle swooping to his prey,
Or the famished wolf to the trembling fold,
So they madly rushed to the bloody fray!
But they rushed to meet no craven foe,

For brave hearts beat in the vale below. Then the dreadful din of the battle raged, And louder and fiercer wax'd the strife, As the the two contending bands engaged a dread encounter, knife to knife : For the cumberous bow aside was thrown. And the arrows among the leaves lay strewn,

And many a ghastly wound was given, And many a death-shrick rent the air; And many a gory scalp was riven
In ruthless haste from its owner there;
And the forest leaves were spattered red
With the reeking blood of the gallant dead. Then the murderous scene from my vision fled.

And the shadowy forms of the gory dead, Dissolved like mist at the break of day; And I stood alone by the quiet deep, Where the red men's shades their vigils keep. And I thought, as I gazed on the curling wave, And I thought, as I gazed on the curing waves And the silent vale, and the woody height, That the world itself is a mighty grave, Where the past lies hid in oblivious night; And each knoll of earth to the eye revealed,

And the echoing war-whoop died away,

Has a tale of life in its breast concealed. Could the dust beneath feel again the thrill Of the bounding pulse, it has felt before,
Then would every valley and every hill,
Be peopled afresh with the forms of yore;

And the waves would moan, and the breezes With the voices old in the years gone by. At times we may peer through the mist and the gloom,
That enshroud the past in mysterious night,
Yet behind are but shadows, before is the tomb,
And we wait its revealings to gladden our

Then the mist, and the shades, and the gloom shall depart, And the light of the future illumine each beart-Crescent Mills, August 30th, 1865. A KINSMAN.—The other day a discussion arose in a neighboring town between a copperhead and an old colored woman, as to which was the better man. The copperhead endeavored, by a learned and lucid theological argument, to prove that negroes were not human beings, but animals. The old shade, with a triumphant air, declared that she "know'd better; didn't Massa Noah and his three sons and their wives go into de ark togedder? Didn't de animals go in two by two? (The copperhead had said they went in by sevens.) Darfore, ain't you some kin or about church-doors, to be taxed at his to me?" The crowd attested by a shout of laughter their appreciation of the point of this argument, and the copperhead saw the necessity of changing the subject.

This is the true spirit of submission; one of the most beautiful traits that can possess the human heart. Resolve to see this world on its sunny side, and you have almost half won the battle of life at the outset.

LOYALTY AND DEVOTION .- Miss Clara Barton, daughter of Judge Barton, of Worcester (Mass.), who has obtained national re-pute by publishing a list of missing soldiers and by her heroic deeds to the wounded in battles, and even under fire, left Washington lately, on a Government vessel, with a party, for the purpose of inclosing the area of ground at Andersonville where so many Federal prisoners perished from want and exposure, and of putting up head-boards at their graves. She conceives that she has a correct list of the deceased, and has accordingly obtained seventeen thousand head-boards for the purpose.

> ROBBERS CAUGHT .- We learn that three of the men who robbed Wheeler & Rutherford's Express on the La Porte road, a few weeks since, have been arrested in San Francisco, as they were taking the steamer for the East. It seems that the parties belonged in Nevada county, and when they returnabout the division of the spoils, thus proving the old adage "When thieves fall out honest men get their dues;" whereupon a man named Corbett, went to the officers and solicited the power to arrest them, offering nine persons, men and women who were to give half the reward. The power was given him, and the men arrested. After their arrest the leader made a clean breast the War Department to convert Ford's Theof the whole transaction and denounced this atre in Washington to the uses of the Buman Corbett as one of the parties who par- reau of Rebel Archieves and Relics. THE STORY OF A BRAVE COLOR-BEARER - A correspondent of a Milwaukee paper relates the following incident of the war:

In a sharp engagement near Dallas, (Ga.), on the 27th of May, 1864, (when Willich's brigade, in which was the Fifteenth Wisconsin, suffered so terribly), the Fifteenth, being in the extreme front, went into the engagement early and was under fire over two hours. Just after the fight commenced, it was noticed that the colors suddealy went down, but almost immediately went up again. It was believed at the time that the color-bearer had stumbled, and no further notice was taken of it until after the battle was ended, when the color-bearer came to Captain Montgomery, and, in his usual quiet way, said: "Captain, I guess I shall have to go to the rear."-" Why, what is the matter?" An Interesting Letter.

Very few persons, even among physicians, would have been willing upon any terms to have been in the condition of the writer of the following letter on the 14th of February last. I will anticipate somewhat his report of the facts, by saying that on the 15th August, inst., he made me a visit, "the very picture of good health," Time, which tries and proves all things, has sufficiently tested this case, and shown that petiter relapse nor collapse having followed, the cure is perfect, and can be cited among the scores of similar cases, the result of my improved mode of treating disease without medicine.

No. 10, Masonic Temple, Post street.

SACRAMESTO, April 20, 1865. Dr. G. M. Bourne—Dear Sir:—It is with pleasure and satisfaction that I now let you know of my good health. Looking buck on what I have passed through, it seems as if was lifted from the grave, and I think it my duty to acknowledge to you and the world the benefit I derived from water treatment as administered by you in your celebrated baths. It was in August, 1864, when disease developed itbaths. It was in August, 1864, when disease developed itself with a severe cough. I then took medicines, getting worse, with chills, fevers, loss of strength, and was pronounced consumptive. This set me to thinking, and finally I determined to leave my business and go to the Sandwich Islands, having been informed that I could not be cured here. I went to San Francisco, and while waiting for a ship, called upon is. Bourne, who stated that a trip to the Islands would probably result disastrously, was whelly unnecessary, as I could then be speedily cured at his establishment. I placed my-elf under his treatment, and in one week was so much improved that I thought I could risk returning home and to my duty as Engineer on the Central Pacific Railroad. The Doctor objected; but I thought I knew better, and r. turned to duty. In about two weeks my turning home and to my duty as Engineer on the Central Pacific Railmad. The Doctor objected; but I thought I knew better, and r. turned to duty. In about two weeks my cough returned, and I kept getting worse, and contrary to Ir. Bourne's fijundtion never to take medicine again, committed that folly, and soon was so completely run down that I could scarcely walk; so, as a last resort, I concluded to once more try the Water Cure. I went to San Francisco-lew of me friends expecting me to return; infact, I thought my return doubtful. On arriving at Dr. Bourne's establishment, (February 14, 1865.) I was not able to get into the bath without as-istance, but in a few days I began to gain. I remained with him only six weeks, when I left, "a wiser and a better man," without the aid of medicine. I have now been at work several weeks, and find that I am gaining every day, and at present bid fair to be stouter than ever before. Persons visiting the Doctor's establishment will find figuat what it should be in both Ladies' and Gentemen's Departments, and I cannet say too much in praise of the Doctor's kind attention to his patients.

This letter I write for the benefit of the afflicted, to be used as the Doctor decides, and should it be true means of directing any one to his care and treatment who (as they assuredly will) find relief, I will be paid for my trouble. Your obedient servant,

"You may overrun the whole South, you may burn our towns, last waste our planta-tions, maim or kill the last man, but, then, sir, we will arm our boys with squirrel rifles and put one behind every stump in the land. What will you do then?
"O," replied the Colonel, "in that case we will be compelled to call out and arm enough of your niggers to surround all the stumps."

"But when you have accomplished all bare south will bare that we, the women of the South, will bare our breasts to the Federal bayonets." "You dare not do that, madam."

"Why not, sir?"
"For the simple reason, madam, it is unlawful. Your Congress has made it criminal for you to expose your cotton to the Yankee forces?"
The lady retired suddenly, while the listeners laughed uproariously. A "Hoss CAR" ADVENTURE. --- Artemus Ward had an adventure in Boston which resulted as follows:

"I returned in the hoss car part of the way. A pooty girl in spectacles sot near me, and was telling a young man how much he reminded her of a young man she used to know in Wareham. Pooty soon the young man got out; and, smiling in a serious manner, I said to the girl in spectacles, "Don't I remind you of somebody you used to know?" "Yes," she said, "you do remind me of one man, he was sent to the penitentiary for stealin' a barrel of mackerel; but he died there, so I conclood you ain't him." I didn't person the conversation.

A MELANCHOLY TRUTH.—When a rakish youth goes astray, friends gather round him in order to restore him to the path of virtue Gentleness and kindness are lavished upon him to win him back again to innocence and peace. No one would suspect that he has ever sinned. But when a poor, confiding girl is betrayed, she receives the brand of society, and is henceforth driven from the ways of virtue. The betrayer is honored, respected, esteemed; but there is no peace for her this side of the grave. Society has but few loving, helping hands for her, no smile of peace, no voice of forgivness. These are earthly mortalities unknown to heaven. There is a deep wrong in them, and fearful are the consequences.

A "LITTLE STORY" FOR JEFF.—It is related that a grave college President once met a wild student on the staircase, with something concealed under his ample cloak. His eagle eye espied a neat pair of gaiter boots sticking out. "Ha!" said he, "what have you there!" "Only a saddle sir," said the student, hurrying past with the lovely burden-"I am given to horseback exercise, you know." "Yes, yes," growled the Profeesor, "but next time you carry a saddle to your room, young man, let me advise you to pull up the stirrups!" So with J. D.; next time he dons the petticoats let him pull off his boots.

An Agep Toan.-The geological world, says the Leeds Mercury, will be sorry to hear that the wonderful toad, which was found embedded in a block of magnesian limestone at Hartlepool, and computed to be 6,000 years old, expired on Friday morning. It was found in April last, and had been in an aquarium at the Hartlepool Museum, and while there, has attracted thousands of visitors. Its death is attributed to injuries which are supposed to have been inflicted by some visitors to the Museum on Thursday, who were excursionists from Newcastle.

SIMPLE REMEDIES. - A correspondent communicates the following to one of our exchanges:

Diptheria-If you wish to save your loved one from that dreadful disease, use alcohol, gargle with it, and perhaps drink a moderate quantity. It will cure as sure as water will put out fire.

SHE HAD HIM.-A curious incident in Paris high life, says the Epoque, is about to become the subject of a suit for a divorce before the First Chamber of the Tribunal of the Seine. A young husband, belonging to one of the great families of France, in order to conceal his nightly absence from home, formed the idea of placing in his bed a figure with a wax head made to resemble him. The artifice succeeded for a time, but one night, the lady venturing to enter her husband's room and approach the bed, discovered the trick. Hence the suit for a judicial separation.

Medical Advice .-- Dr. WM. K. DOHERTY'S Medical and Surgical Institute is becoming a sine qua non to the welfare of our State and health of our citizens; and his rapidly spreading reputation, although it may excite surprise, is but the signal of skill, and follows as the natural effect of such a cause. We are personally acquinted with gentlemen who had suffered for years under chronic diseases, and who had taken advantage of every available means that promised relief. but without success, until they called upon Dr. Doherty, who in an incredibly short space of time has given them entire relief. It is gratifying to annouce this fact, because the Doctor is a gentleman who seeks, not by defamation of others, to establish his reputation or to rear the superstructure of his own upon the ruins of another's fame. The Doctor conducts his Institute in such a manner that must be gratifying to all his patients. A CASE OF GLEET AND STRICTURE:—
Dr. Doherty—Dear Sir: I feel my health so fully restored, that in common gratitude, I believe I should make some written acknowledgment for your valuable services—particularly so as your fee was small for the work performed. I arrived in this city from the East about one year ago and was then suffering from an old case of Gleet, complicated with stricture. Being a stranger in this city, and believing those doctors who gave such positive assurances of success were necessarily the best (some of whom have a large number of titles,) I placed myself in their charge and continned under their treatment until I had lost nearly all hope and a considerable sum of money. I wish to say now that you are the sixth Doctor I have employed, and the only one that has ever done me any service. My Gleet is wholly cured, the strice ture is all removed, and my general health is better than it has been for years. In conclusion would say to the many unfortunates who require medical advice, if you have any doubt as to whom you may employ, ask Dr. Doherty for my address; and call and see me. (I keep store in this city.)-My experience may save you many dollars. would also add that in the early stage of my dis ease. I used a large amount of the preparations advertised as an infallible care for Gonorhoe. Gleet, etc., but never derived any benefit from them. I

San Francisco. TO THE PUBLIC.

The large number of unprincipled "Doctors" who now advertise in the public journals, and who have so long held full sway in San Francisco, seem to render it imperative for some capable practitioner of medicine, on whom the public can rely, to make an attempt, not only to relieve those who may be suffering from disease, but also to save them from the rapacity of charlatans and impostors.

Dr. Moore is pre-eminently qualified,—possessing all the attributes of a physician, gentleman and a scholar, and we unhesitatingly recommend him to the confidence of the public.—[S. F. Daily Spectator.

Heretofore it has been regarded as unprofessional for a physician in good standing, and of high professional attainments, to resort to advertising; consequently, men without character or capacity have done all the business. We commend the independence of Dr. C. W. Moore in having taken the lead in an enterprise in which the patient may be benefitted in proportion to the compensation exacted.—[Mountain Democrat, Placerville.

Since all mankind are liable to get sick, and since many suffer additional afflictions from many "Doctors" who thus far monopolized the practice of physic, we find for once an honorable exception to this class Dr. C. W. Moore, whose antecedents, and well known scientific attainments, are a sufficient guarantee, to all who may require his services.—
[Carson Post.

We would call especial attention to the Medical Card of Dr. C. W. Moore, in another column of this paper. In addition to the many notices, which he has received from the press, throughout the State, we are pleased to bear testimony to his professional ability, and recommend him to the public confidence as an honorable gentleman, and a skillful physician and surgeon, in whom the most implicit reliance can be placed by those requiring his services.—[San Mateo Gazette.]

Gazette.

Dr. C. W. Moore, late Surgeon-General in Gen. Rutler's Division, U. S. A., and for several years Quarantine Physician at Boston, has opened a Medical Institute in San Francisco, where the sick can receive first-class medical treatment at a reasonable charge. Dr. Moore's reputation as a physician and surgeon stands very high, and we have nodoubt but he will do well in this new locality. We wish him the success he deserves.—[Solano Herald.]

Persons suffering with disease of and kind or description, by placing themselves under the care of Dr. Moore, can receive gentlemanly and scientific treatment.—[Contra Costa Gazette.]

We refer our readers to the advertisement of Dr. C. W. Moore, in another column. It is quite time that the prejudice against a regular physician in regard to any public announcement of his business should cease, and we are glad to perceive that Dr. Moore has taken the first step. The Doctor is a gentleman of first-class ability as a physician and surgeon, and the many important offices he has filled are a sufficient guarantee.

We advise those who may need his services to call on him, satisfied that they will find him an humble and capable physician, notwithstanding he advertises.—(Humbeldt Times, K-31-5m.

Dr. Moore offers his services to the people of California in the capacity of Physician and Surgeon, giving no bogus certificates of remarkable cures, nor offending delicacy by disgusting descriptions of disease, but simply referring to the following TESTIMONIALS OF THE PRESS:

public.—[S. F. Daily Spectator.

We are glad to perceive that one of the "regular" physicians in San Francisco has entered the field against the numerous medical humbugs that have so long deluded the people of this coast. Dr. C. W. Moore, whose advertisement we print in another column, is a regularly educated physician who has filled many responsible positions in hospital and army practice, and on whose ability full reliance may be placed. We heartily recommend him to those who may need his services.—[Stockton Record.

Dr. Moore has had great experience in surgery, having been Surgeon in the army of General Butler for two years, and is endorsed by the San Francisco press as a gentleman in every way reliable.—[Grass Valley National.
